

ABOUT ME

Hanna Roth (b. 1998, Linz) studied Comparative Literature and Cultural Studies in Salzburg. Writing since age eight, she explores mental health, nature, feminism, and travel through multilingual poetry, reflections, and stories. Her published works include Mirror of the world (2024), Herz gegen Kopf (2024), and In between humans (2026).

ABOUT ME

Hanna Roth was born in Linz (Austria) in 1998. She studied Comparative Literature and Cultural Studies in Salzburg and loves Mediterranean countries. Hanna wrote her first poem in her diary at the age of 8. Since then, she has been processing her emotions and inner conflicts through writing and has been sharing her work with her readers for several years. Her works cover a wide range of topics, including mental health, immigration, art, coming of age topics, feminism, university studies, family, and self-care. Her works also provide the ideal canvas for expressing Hanna's personal connection to nature, cooking, and her travels. To date, "Mirror of the world" (2024) and "Herz gegen Kopf" (2024) have been published by Story One Publishing. In 2026, her latest work, "In between humans," was published by Tolino Media. Hanna writes poetry, reflections, reportages, and stories in various languages. Her books are widely available in stores.